

A Dog and a Frog and a Boy.

The dog and the boy went out one day and they went over to the pond. So the boy jumped over a tree and the dog was scratching his ear. When they got over they seen a little green frog. They runned and they tripped with a big splash! And it is a bit dizzy and the water and the boy had a can on his head. And the frog was staring at the boy. And then the boy tried to catch the frog the frog jumped away over the boy. And the dog was looking a bit excited! And then he thought it was his hands full but it wasn't so they got the net, climbed on a log and then the frog was in the middle. And then they walked up and then the boy lifted up the net but the frog jumped free and he catched the dog. The frog was angry cause the boy and the dog was trying to catch him . Then the boy was angry at the frog too. Then the frog got sad. So the boy and the dog walked away. The boy and the dog were angry. The frog was sad but he had an idea. So he followed the footprints of the boy and they boy inside his home and up the stairs and he was happy when he saw the bath. When he saw the bath he got excited and he ran for it and they were surprised when the frog got there because they wanted the frog and the dog was happv. The End.

