

The boy, the Dog and the Frog.

The boy tried to catch the frog but he couldn't. The frog felt sad. The boy tried to catch the frog but he fell into the lake. The boy tried to catch the frog but he couldn't. The boy was angry. The frog felt sad. The boy tried to catch the frog but he caught the dog instead. The frog felt sad. The boy went home angry. The frog felt sad but then he realised there were footprints. He went inside. The frog came back and he splashed in the bath. The boy had fun. The frog and the dog had fun. The End.
